SURIAGROUP STRENGTHENS MEDIA TIES WITH EXCITING 'LET'S BOWL WITH MEDIA' TOURNAMENT

Suria Capital Holdings Berhad (SuriaGroup) successfully hosted its much-anticipated "Let's Bowl With Media" bowling tournament at KK Galaxy Bowl, Centre Point Sabah, bringing together members of the media and SuriaGroup representatives in a day of camaraderie, friendly competition and celebration.

The tournament, held from 12.00pm to 4.00pm, officially commenced when Encik Mohd Daniel Lim, Head of Group Internal Audit for SuriaGroup, rolled the ceremonial ball to mark the start of the games. His opening gesture set the tone for an afternoon filled with energy, teamwork and sportsmanship.

This year's event featured two exciting categories – Individual and Group – ensuring participants had the chance to showcase their skills both personally and collectively.

In the individual contest, Encik Basir Dillah of Team Suria 1 emerged champion, followed by Encik Janiel Linog from Team Sabah Ports 1 in second place, while Tuan Zaidi and Puan Miriam from Team Media claimed third and fourth respectively.

The group category saw Team Suria 1 taking top honours, ahead of Team Media in second place, with Team Sabah Ports 1 and Team Sabah Ports 2 finishing third and fourth. The winners were celebrated with trophies and attractive vouchers, making the tournament both rewarding and memorable.

In addition to the bowling excitement, participants and guests enjoyed delicious food and refreshments, fostering an atmosphere of unity and appreciation. SuriaGroup also prepared goodie bags for all bowlers, reflecting the Group's commitment to strengthening bonds with the media community.

The 'Let's Bowl with Media' engagement not only highlighted SuriaGroup's appreciation for the media but also reinforced the Group's commitment to fostering collaboration and goodwill through meaningful, light-hearted engagements.
